National Shakespearians To Perform Here Tuesday

A single performance of "Macbeth" by the National Shakespeare Company of New York is scheduled for Tuesday at Mount Miguel High School.

Curtain time for the production, sponsored by the Miguel English Department, will be 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

Heading the cast of the professional group will be William Metzo as Macbeth; veteran Hollywood-Broadway actor Howland Chamberlain as Banquo; and Pat Starr (former Old Globe actress) as Lady Macbeth.

Extended Tour

The New York-based troupe, organized in 1962, has logged thousands of miles in its 36-week trek throughout more than 30 states in the U. S. Their performance at Mount Miguel, other than a one-nighter in Burbank, will be their only appearance in Southern California.

Founded by producer-director Philip Meister and actress Elaine Sulka, in order "to bring quality productions of culturally significant dramatic literature to the nation at large," the company travels as a self-contained unit with the most advanced modern theatrical equipment. Productions are fully costumed and performed against settings with a full complement of light, sound, and musical effects.

One of the major reasons for the Miguel English department's sponsorship of the play is the opportunity to bring a New York theater production to the LG-SV area at a nominal cost.

Ticket Sales

Adult tickets and off-campus student tickets will sell for $1.50; student tickets for Mount Miguel students for $1. Reservations may be made by phoning the Mount Miguel High School business office or by mail, accompanied by check or money order. Tickets will be sold at the door on a first-come, first-served basis.

Meister, a native New Yorker, has among his credits that of being: founder and co-owner of two New York theaters (The Fifty-second Street Theater and the Rooftop Theater); directing-fellow at the American Shakespeare Festival and Academy at Stratford, Conn.; associate and production stage manager under director Jose Quintero at Circle in the Square and The Festival of Two Worlds at Spoleto, Italy; producer and director of six independent off-Broadway plays, including "Hop, Signor!" by Michel de Ghelderode, and "The Breaking Wall" Louis Lippa.

Miss Sulka

Elaine Sulka spent three years as a member of the famed San Francisco Actors' Workshop. She has appeared at the San Diego Shakespeare Festival and the American Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, Conn. In addition she has appeared in four off-Broadway plays, a New York City Center production of "Sainte Jeanne Au Boucher" and the Broadway production of Paddy Chayefsky's "The Passion of Josef D."

Metzo, who plays Macbeth, has been a resident member of the Kennebunkport summer

For That Lonely Feeling

A "study" of a welfare "arrangement" by a Los Angeles radio station was rejected by local welfare people when we went to them to confirm the story.

It has to do with MARS, an acronym for Male Assuming Role of Spouse.

The San Diego Welfare Department said the story is false so far as the money angle is concerned but agreed with it with regard to the family relationship.

The L. A. radio station, KLAC, said, in essence, that a woman without a legal spouse, who is drawing Aid to Needy Children benefits, may continue to draw this aid even after an unrelated man comes to share her bread and board.

The radio reporter suggested that a woman with four or five kids and no husband living on the premises, if indeed she ever had a husband, could be drawing $400 more or less a month from the child welfare pot.

The mama, either because of a feeling of loneliness, or the belief that any male in the house is better for the children than no man at all, might go to the corner saloon for a guy who could satisfy these needs.

Now, this dude—say he's a truck driver making $150 a week—is polite to a fault, and he agrees to accommodate this lady. He keeps a very strict list of expenses his presence generates and meticulously pays his way to the tune of $10 or $15 a week. He does this so the law can't complain that he's taking it away from the kids' welfare income. He just as meticulously avoids overpayment because any part of the obligations he shares over the actual expense is lopped off the welfare check.

The reporter addd that there is presumably a bonus payment made to the male because of the contribution he's making to the welfare (if that's the word) of the family when he becomes the Male Assuming Role of Spouse, or MARS as the welfare people list him. While welfare denied this vehemently, the radio report insisted that an extra $17 or so is added for his recreation, probably to keep his morale from flagging while assuming his new role. The reporter called it beer money!

If harmony exists in the home, there is a possibility that within a year an increase in ANC funds mights be given by virtue of another little mouth to feed—and I don't need welfare people to explain that!

San Diego Welfare slapped back good and strong at these allegations. The reports are not true, says Miss Carolyn Doolittle, assistant director of County Welfare here.

"We call it the Male Assuming Role of Spouse because state law in California does not recognize common law relationships. So we refer to him as MARS. The law provides for this family arrangement and the children are eligible for aid in their own home if the care is adequate. "We have no way of forcing the man to leave as long as none of the money is spent on him. But if he loses his job and does not pay his way, he must leave. If he does not leave we refer the matter to the district attorney," she said.

Welfare philosophy has changed a lot since it became liberalized several years ago. It has been liberalized even more since the new poverty programs were sponsored by our President.

As one of our friends remarked: "Poverty — that's the only way to travel!"

'I'm A Tired American'

In Luverne, Minn., editor Alan McIntosh of the Rock County Herald did an article in which he claimed to be "a tired American."

First, he claims he is tired of being called an ugly American, then he proceeds to list some other things he is tired of.

"I'm tired," he says, "of having the world use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

"I'm tired . . . weary of having American embassies and in-

Cafe Owner Kills Self

Funeral services will be held Friday for Ralph Heim, 50, operator of Spin Inn Cafe, 3645 Imperial Ave., Lemon Grove.

Services will be held at Erickson-Anderson Mortuary at 11:15 a.m. followed by interment in Rosecrans National Cemetery.

Heim, who lived at 7510 Orien St., La Mesa, was found dead by his wife Blanche, who came to the cafe at 11:15 a.m. Tuesday to drive him home for breakfast.

He had finished having a cup of coffee with his bartender, Mike Lawler, just a few minutes before his wife arrived. Lawler said Heim appeared normal in every respect and that their conversation was about some business matters of no particular consequence. He then went to a storeroom in the rear of the cafe building and shot himself.

The coroner's office said that Heim died from a self-inflicted gun shot in the roof of his mouth. The weapon was a .25 automatic.

Heim had owned Spin Inn since July 1, 1960 when he purchased the cafe from Ralph Fetters. He had lived in the area since 1947 and was a native of Michigan.

He was a member of the Lemon Grove Moose club, the La Mesa VFW, and the D.A.R.

He is survived by his wife Blanche, a daughter and a granddaughter in El Cajon, and a sister in Los Angeles.

VISTA, Volunteer In Service To America, is a retraining and vocational training program under the Office of Economic Opportunity in President Johnson's War on Poverty. Cmdr. and Mrs. Beland have lived in Lemon Grove 11 years.

Fire Hits Grove House

A portable bed next to a water heater ignited at a house at 3307 Vista Dr., Lemon Grove, Wednesday morning, causing fire damage to the rear portion of the structure.

Lemon Grove Fire Department responded to the call at 11:11 a.m. The fire was under control but not out when the Department arrived. A neighbor had used a garden hose to keep it from blazing away.

Fire damage was restricted to the area around the water heater and bed.

ACCIDENT — Three persons were injured Feb. 10 in a two-car accident at the intersection of Alton and Washington streets in Lemon Grove. According to the California Highway Patrol, Catherine Mark, 23, and her two children were injured when her car collided with a station wagon, driven by Elwood Mott, 59, of 2885 New Jersey Ave., Lemon Grove. Mrs. Mark received severe injuries. Her four-year-old son Scott received minor injuries and two-month-old daughter Kelly complained of pains. Mott was driving north on Washington when the Mark vehicle violated the right of way while heading east on Alton, according to a Highway Patrol spokesman. Mrs. Mark's car ended up resting against the side of a house near the intersection.

Hearing Set On Unification Of Area Schools

A six-member review committee will conduct a public hearing March 1 at 8 p.m. in the El Cajon High School cafeteria, 1035 Madison Ave., El Cajon, on two proposals for unification of school districts in the Grossmont Union High School District area.

The review committee will consider the San Diego County Committee on School District Organization's proposal to form two unified school districts and a plan prepared at the direction of the State Board of Education which will propose a single unified school district for the area.

The State Board of Education has twice disapproved the SDCC's two-district proposal in previous meetings.

Single College Campus Concept

Trustee Asks Economy

MISSION BELLES—The Evening Sections of numerous woman's clubs in the state are currently undergoing a project to place replicas of the old Mission Bells along the El Camino Real Trail from San Diego to San Francisco. Shown here with one of the bells are (l-r) Mrs. May Williams, member of the Junta de la Noche section of the Spring Valley Woman's Club, Mrs. Winsome Houghton, Lemon Grove Vogue Evening Section chairman of the LG Woman's Club, and Mrs. Grace Houge, also a member of the Spring Valley group. Both Lemon Grove and Spring Valley groups have been instrumental in the project.

'Up' Rather Than 'Out' Will Cut Operation Cost

By Max Goodwin

A plea for more classrooms on the Grossmont College campus instead of developing a second campus in the south part of the Grossmont District is being voiced here by College Trustee Robert P. Dryden.

"We're going to kill the goose that lays the golden egg," he said. "Those who pay the bills for expansion programs approved by the trustees are going to rebel some day," he said.

Fear that the day of rebellion is approaching has led Trustee Dryden to become increasingly outspoken about the Grossmont building program.

"The college district has obligated residents with $11 million dollars in bonded indebtedness. They were already paying for one of $7.5 millions when we asked them to approve another for $3.5 million in October. They approved our request and I think we ought to get as much as we can in the way of construction on the present campus before we consider setting up another campus operation," Dryden said.

Dryden had earlier approved the $3.5 expansion bond issue only after other trustees agreed that the money would not be used for site acquisition. Other trustees are Rexford Hall, Postia Goode, Palmer Svalstad and George Birch.

Multi-Storied Buildings

"We should go up with our buildings rather than out," he said. Multiple-story construction would reduce the need for some administrators, another set of deans, more clerks, secretaries, and possibly another president, he said. "The present campus can be enlarged without harming the aesthetic qualities of Grossmont. New wings, already planned, can be built with a second story. I figure we could double the student population to as much as 10,000-certainly to 7,500 with ease-before we become concerned about another campus.

Dryden pointed out that present bond issues represent an investment of $2,300 a student based on Grossmont's rated 4,800 capacity.

Regarding capacity evaluation, Dryden had something to say: "I don't see how administrators can look at a campus and say that it has a certain capacity. Capacity is reached only when the present property is properly utilized without reducing educational programs or harming the aesthetics of the campus," he said."

College Laws Flexible

Use of the campus is flexible, said Dryden. "We forget this in a college. High schools and elementary schools have state laws which govern their layouts. That is why you see so much land devoted to such things as basketball courts which are used about once a week," he said.

Land purchase for a campus at Monte Vista, or elsewhere would be costly and a sewerage problem exists at Monte Vista, he said. "Engineers have estimated that it will cost $1 million to install a sewerage system. An alternate would be the building of our own effluent plant and that would be very expensive too," he added.

"It stands to reason that savings would be considerable if we increase student capacity at a location where the administration building, the student center, the library, gym and playing fields already exist," he said. "Our architects are studying plans by which these facilities can be enlarged on a single story basis at Grossmont should the trustees want to increase the campus enrollment."

Overcome Initial Cost

Dryden said initial cost of multiple-story construction is greater than single story buildings but "savings would quickly pay the extra initial cost."

"The prime reason for any college is education," Dryden said. "It makes sense that we consider more classrooms rather than more administration buildings."

"I believe the public supports me in this position. Many voters who elected me to the Grossmont Board have told me that they did so because they wanted leadership in developing the present campus fully before spreading to another site. They wanted this done in order to hold the line against the growing tax burden," he said.

Republicans To Roundup Unregistered Voters

Wardwell Back As Commissioner

William Wardwell, who was appointed last year to the Lemon Grove Fire Commission to fill the unexpired term created when veteran Commissioner Tom Parson moved from the district, will be appointed to serve a three year term. He was the only candidate to file for the job at filing deadline time Feb. 10.

As a result of a single candidate, there will be no district election. The cost of such an election is approximately $500.

Wardwell is switchboard installation supervisor for the Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and La Mesa areas for the PacTelCo. Other commissioners are Parker Shumate, also employed by PacTelCo. and John Hall, a self-employed blind salesman.

Saturday is "Republican Roundup" Day for all unregistered GOP voters in San Diego County, according to an announcement by RAdm. Leslie E. Gehres, USN (ret.) Republican Central Committee Chairman.

On this date, a team of two Republican volunteers will canvass each precinct throughout San Diego County and knock on every door to record the names and addresses of prospective Republican voters.

"This coordinated Countywide drive to locate and round up all unregistered Republicans and potential Republicans is well underway," Gehres said. "The volunteers are being recruited and assigned to area headquarters in over 70 locations throughout the County. Our 'target' is to recover the 20% loss from the last purge of the voter rolls plus a net 20% gain of voters who register with the Republican Party."

Ashcraft To Speak At LG Men's Club

Republican Assemblyman Hale Ashcraft (80th district) will be the featured guest speaker Friday at the Lemon Grove Men's Club noon luncheon in Michael's Restaurant.

Ashcraft is expected to speak on the state budget for 1966-67.

Last week's meeting was highlighted by a report on the San Diego County Convention and Tourist's Bureau given by Lew Huston, assistant membership manager of the bureau.

"Tourists left to San Diego County in 1965 over 241 million dollars," reported Huston.

He said the revenue produced by the tourist trade was exceeded locally only by the Federal payroll and areospace program.

"There's very little we can do about the Federal and areospace expenditures here. Tourism is something we can have control over," Huston related.

"Ten years ago tourists left $80 million in San Diego County. Last year's figure ($241 million) was three times that. It is estimated that money left here by tourists turns over eight to 12 times before leaving again. That gives the County a lot to work with," he said.

One way in which the Convention and Tourist Bureau aids tourism is through national advertising. Huston showed examples of advertisements in national magazines such as Life, Holiday, etc.

Last year the bureau's budget was doubled over 1964. It showed through tourism revenue.

"In 1964 conventions pumped $22 million in the County economy. Last year they spent over $39 million, almost double the previous figure," Huston said.

He added that there were 300,000 convention delegates in San Diego in 1965.

Read James 2: 14-26

That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge. (Ephesians 3:17-19)

There are millions of people throughout the world who, like the apostle Paul, express their faith in words—a powerful, God-given medium.

An elderly lady who taught a class of boys had to walk a couple of miles to her Sunday school. One Sunday was a hard winter's day, but she got there.

"How ever did you manage to get here?" asked one of the boys.

"Oh," she replied, "God gave me too good legs, and a strong will, and warm clothes. But more than that, He has put in my heart a great love for you boys. If I can help you to learn to love Tim, I shall be happy. The cold weather will pass. ."

These words made a deep impression on the boys. She expressed her faith in words—in deeds, too.

Prayer: Gracious Father, who hast given knowledge of Thy way and purpose, we thank Thee for giving us many reasons why we should maintain our faith in Thee. Help us by Thy grace to find ways for expressing our faith which will be means of help to others. In the Savior's name. Amen.

Thought for the Day: Our Christian faith must find expression in doing good—both by our words and by our deeds.

At stake will be second place behind Grossmont League champion Helix High and a possible berth in the San Diego CIF basketball playoffs, which begin Monday.

Both Miguel and Monte Vista won Tuesday to set up the important encounter. They are currently tied with El Capitan's Vaqueros and Grossmont's Foothillers for second place. All four clubs possess 7-6 records.

Chance Earned

Monte Vista earned its chance for a second place CIF berth by topping Santana's Sultans, 66-58, while Miguel was taking the measure of last-place El Cajon, 47-44.

El Capitan dumped Granite Hills, 74-59, while Helix whipped Grossmont, 66-56, to throw the standings into a four-way tie for second.

Center Allen Phillips, who has been consistently finding the scoreboard during the second half of the league campaign, scored 21 points to lead his club to a victory over the tall Sultans.

Scores 16

Phillips was helped by guard Rick Aylward's 16 and and forward John Aird's 13. Brent Finney and John Hnatek each scored seven for coach Felix Rodgers' five.

Santana was topped by Gary Schneider's 19. Brien Bickerton scored 11 and Bill Kirwan 10 for the Sultans.

The Monarchs led 17-12 at the end of the first eight minutes, 30-26 at the half and 46-41 after three periods before wrapping things up with 20 points in the finale to Santana's 17.

Ela Hits

Mount Miguel's win over El Cajon came as the result of a 15-point output by guard Pat Ela and 13-points by center Oscar Chavez.

The Matadors, down 26-24 at the half, rallied for an 11-6 advantage in the third quarter and then held the home team Braves' to a 12-12 standoff in the last eight minutes.

Mike Ela, sophomore brother of Pat, added nine to the Miguel total. Norm Jones paced El Cajon with 15 points.

'Flu Bug' Hits Miguel

Principal Mel Grant reported Tuesday that the "flu bug" has hit Mount Miguel High School.

He said over 13 per cent of the student body were missing from classes, far over the normal rate of one to five per cent. He said a telephone survey revealed that 90 per cent of Tuesday's absentees were out because of flu.

The current flu epidemic has caused several schools in the northern part of the state to close down because of a large segment of the student body unable to attend classes.

Grant said the chances of Mount Miguel shutting down "are almost non-existable since it is doubtful that that many students will be involved in a school of Mount Miguel's size."

$280 Ring Hocked For $30 Is Charge

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—Lauren D. Hollenbeck, 31, of 1598 Drexel Dr., Lemon Grove, is slated to go on trial in Superior Court March 24 in two separate trials. One will trail the other.

In one, Hollenbeck is charged with passing bad checks.

Hollenbeck already is under prison sentence for burglary. He pleaded guilty to the burglary of the San Diego Janitor Supply, San Diego, where he loaded the company's truck with a safe, typewriters, dictating machine and floor buffers and drove off with the lot. Money Management

By Harold R. Glaeser

"Buy Now and Save"—How many times do you hear this as the opening statement in a commercial? To save means to take money you already have and put it away for a definite future use.

You cannot save that which you do not have. Money management requires a time-out-let's-think-about-it approach to purchasing stereos, color TV's and the latest bucket-seat hot rod. Many bankruptcies and broken homes could be avoided if people would only sit down and really analyse the "pitches" they give in to daily.

You know, waiting a couple of months, you can really save the money—pay 100% cash and truly enjoy your purchase without harassing monthly pay ments which seem to go on forever.

For answers to your specific questions write Mr. Glaeser in care of this newspaper.

Schrade-Mills Transit Bill Opposed By City Authorities

Resistance to the Schrade-Mills Transit District grew last week as representatives of the seven metropolitan cities met with Supervisor Henry Boney to discuss the possible implementation of a County or joint powers transit agency.

Five of the city representatives called on the County for a detailed alternative to the Schrade-Mills Transit District. Mayor Eleanor Anderson asked that the County present a "specific plan for consideration by the Chula Vista City Council". Others urging formation of a County plan were Councilmen J. W. Callahan and J. C. Overton of Coronado; Mayor Albert Van Zanten of El Cajon; City Manager Robert L. Wynn of Imperial Beach; and La Mesa Mayor Ray Fellows.

General concern was expressed regarding the Schrade-Mills Transit District as proposed by MART. "We do not want to be saddled with the Schrade-Mills District", said Councilman Callahan of Coronado. He was supported by La Mesa Mayor Ray Fellows who stated that we (La Mesa City Council) have studied the Schrade-Mills proposal and are opposed to a district formed under this legislation.

San Diego Councilman Harry Scheidle briefly outlined the City's proposal for a non-profit transit corporation.

Councilman Jack Walsh of San Diego said that the two plans were very close, "I feel the City and County should work independently to develop their plans and come together again in March to compare notes". Boney said a merger of the two plans should be considered.

A one-time newsboy on the streets on San Diego has announced his candidacy for assemblyman in the 79th District.

Springer is past president of the East San Diego Lions Club and the East San Diego Chamber of Commerce. He has been a member of the S. D. Typographical Union for the past 41 years, and is a life member of the San Diego Rowing Club. He also has held offices in two Southeast San Diego improvement clubs.

The Republican candidate is a native Californian, residing in San Diego since 1912, with timeout for schooling in the San Francisco area. He also lived two years in the mountains of Julian. Mr. and Mrs. Springer reside at 4155 Olympic St.

Springer, as editor of his weekly newspaper, has maintained a non-partisan attitude in the past. This is his first venture into politics and he feels he can be of service to his 79th district in the state legislature.

Prep Music Makers To Be Heard Sunday

Mount Miguel high school's band, orchestra, and stage band will present a Pops Concert Sunday.

The 3 p.m. event, scheduled in the school gym, will feature music that will be light in nature with "something for everyone," according to Lawrence Curtis, instrumental music department director.

Judged the outstanding band in the city and county of San Diego at the annual Autumn Band Review, the concert band will play the two marches it performed in the Rose Parade on New Year's Day. In addition, it will be heard in selections from "Mary Poppins" and works from Shostakovich, Prokofiev and Peter Mennin.

The stage or dance band will give several jazz numbers, including the Stan Kenton hit "Intermission Riff."

Four numbers by living American composers will be featured by the orchestra: "Plink-Plank-Plunk" by Leroy Anderson; "Dance Rhythms" by Riegger; "Holiday for Strings' by David Rose; and the Overture to "Candide' by Leonard Bernstein.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50c for students; they are available from any band or orchestra member or at the door. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will enable the groups to pay for trips to music festivals for the rest of the school year. The orchestra has just been selected to perform for Carmen Dragon at the Montana Music Festival on March 11.

Griffs Close Out 1965-66 Season

The Grossmont College Griffins will wrap-up their 1965-66 season Saturday as they face San Diego City College in a Pacific Southwest Conference game that could see the Griffs climb into 2nd place behind Imperial Valley College in the loop's final standings.

Grossmont, assured of at least a winning season, holding a 14-9 mark overall, trails San Diego City by only one game in the race for the PSC's runner-up spot, and will meet the Knights in a showdown battle in City's gym beginning at 8:15 p.m.

The two teams have split this year's earlier encounters, Grossmont winning 60-58 in the Palomar Tournament and City winning 78-74 in the first round of the PSC.

Scheduled to start for the Griffs will be Paul Landis and Dan Roberson at the guards, Steve Howe and Lynn Lowder at the forwards, and with Doug Tobin or Tom Dobransky at center.

For Landis, who prepped at Monte Vista High, this will be the final two games of his two-year career for the Griffins. If Landis scores his season average of 22.8 in both games this week he will set two more records for Grossmont. He needs only 9 points to break the 1,000 mark for two years, and needs only 39 to break Bob Lundgren's one season mark of 564 set last season, in 29 games. Paul will have only 25.

In action of last week Grossmont was eliminated from PSC title contention, dropping a 84- at El Centro. Shaler Halimon of 70 decision to Imperial Valley the Arabs led all scorers with 36 points, but Grossmont's fast improving freshmen center Steve Howe sank 15 of 22 field goal attempts, winding up with 31 points. Landis followed Howe, canning 22. Grossmont led only once, at 24-22, mid-way through the first half, but trailed by only three at the end of the first half.

The second half was all IVC though as they opened up a 17 point lead and came home with their 20th straight victory.

In its other game of last week Grossmont topped Palomar College 69-60, in an overtime game. Landis hit his 2nd highest mark of the season with 33 points. In his last four games Landis' lowest field goal mark has been 55 percent.

In the Palomar game Grossmont built an early lead, then saw the Comet's cut the lead to nothing behind the play of Wayne Pitcher, throwing the game into overtime, the first overtime game for Grossmont in two years. In the overtime period the Griffs got hot, as they reeled off 11 points to the Comet's 2.

Mary Larsen Tops Helix Homemakers

BY KAREN JOHNSON

Mary L. Larsen, Helix High School senior, has been named Helix's 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Mary scored highest in a written test taken by senior homemaking students last December and is now eligible to compete for state and national honors. As a result of her accomplishments, Mary has received a pin signifying her award.

Mary's test is being scored by a panel of judges who will choose a State Homemaker of Tomorrow and her runner-up. The winner of the State title will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will receive a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannia. Her runner-up will receive a $500 grant, according to Mary Kloos, Helix homemaking teacher.

During her high school career Mary has been active in cheerleading, politics, and club activities while maintaining a high scholastic average. She was secretary of the junior class and of Junior Y-teens, and is currently Senior class secretary. She has been a member of the California Scholastic Federation ever since beginning high school and now is a candidate for an honorary membership in CSF.

Last year she was chosen a Tartan Bearer, the highest honor given to junior students for their academic achievements. She is also clubs editor of the 1966 Tartan, Helix's yearbook, and was recently chosen as the senior girl with the prettiest smile.

"Oh, you really don't know how excited I was, I was actually speechless when I found out I won," Mary explained. "I'm planning to major in home economics," she added.

Patty Doran Competing In Statewide Contest

Patricia A. Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O. Doran of 9525 Barbic Ln., Spring Valley, was recently named Monte Vista's 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

She scored highest on written knowledge and attitude examinations given to senior girls and is now eligible for state and national scholarship awards.

The separate school winners are now being judged and their test results checked to determine the State Homemaker of Tomorrow, the winner of a $1,500 scholarship. The runner-up will receive a $500 scholarship grant.

Next spring, each of the state winners, accompanied by a school advisor, will tour Williamsburg, Va., and Washington D. C. The 1966 "All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow" will be announced at a dinner in Washington.

This contest, to determine the American Homemakers of Tomorrow, was established by General Mills in 1954. It's main purpose is to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career.

Last year's event attracted nearly 15,000 fans, according to Lt. Col. Wilbur R. Barnes, USMC ret., of El Cajon, president of the sponsoring club.

Ten top experts in the field of purebred dogs will judge the canine champions. Each is an authority on the breeds assigned to him. On the judging slate are Charles F. Hamilton, Omaha, Neb.; Virgil D. Beer Sailed The Ocean

In the 17th century, every sailing ship crossing the Atlantic carried casks of beer for the long voyage as the water supply became unsafe for drinking. Sterilized beer did not become contaminated and supplied the necessary liquid for the length of the voyage.
